

Westside Weekly

BUENA PARK CERRITOS CYPRESS LA PALMA • SERVING THE WESTERN EDGE OF ORANGE COUNTY • LOS ALAMITOS ROSSMOOR & SEAL BEACH

SNAPSHOTS

Santa pays an early visit to Cerritos

Mia Silvas asks Santa for "a fake kitty and a real pony."

About 94 people met Santa and Mrs. Claus on Monday at the Cerritos Library. The North Pole pair sang traditional Christmas songs, taught dances, played games and told stories including "Twas the Night Before Christmas." Santa also met with each child and took requests for presents.

The library hopes to make Claus Family Christmas an annual event.

PHOTOS BY JOSHUA SUDOCK, SPECIAL TO WESTSIDE WEEKLY

Angelina De Mello, 2, isn't quite sure what to make of Santa.

Serina Wu takes a photo of her daughter Justine, 6, on Santa's lap.

Marcoantonio Salazar, 5, plays a math game with Mrs. Claus.

Jaleéna Nauta, 10 months, meets Santa for the first time.

Anna De Brower clings to her son, 4-year-old Diego.

Snapshots

The Orange County Register

Friday, Dec. 16, 2005

Westside Weekly

3